

The Phantom of the Opera

The Phantom

Erik, the Ghost, seems to be a special and a bit mysterious guy; but I imagine it as the following way. I imagine he is tall and thin; He is always well dressed with special and luxury brands. And the most important part of him is his face. I try to imagine his face shaped like a diamond, because his face is a skull. Then the holes in his eyes are very large, and finally a yellow tone to the skin due to its deterioration over the years.

And now we are going to talk about his personality. I imagine it looks so wicked and scary, but it's actually not even that bad. The only problem is his past, the bad memories that lead him to behave in such a way and that is why he is feared, apart from his physique, especially his face
